On typing www.google.com a series of steps will be performed some of the basic thing that will happen are loaded in following lines:

browser check: The browser checks if it's a URL.

- DNS Lookup: The browser asks the Domain Name System (DNS) for the IP address of Google's server.
- Connection Established: The browser establishes a connection to the server using TCP.
- Request Sent: The browser sends an HTTP request for the Google homepage.
- Response Received: The server sends back the HTML content of the page.
- Page Displayed: The browser interprets the HTML and displays the Google homepage.